Our twi-ght pray'r e'er the sha-dows fall, Our pray'r at the dawn of day Will our So moth-ers, wives and sweethearts all In si-lence at noon-time pray The

mf

sol-diers guide on the march of life Else their wav-'ring feet should stray. The u-power of thought o'er the rip-pling wave Will light-en their dis-may. The red dim.

nit-ed strength of lov-ing hearts, Will make their mor-als shine As the rose of love in Flanders' field Shall blos-som o'er the slain, For the met - al on their con-quer-ing guns Roused the slum-b'ring banks of Rhine, _____ brav-est flow'r of Yan-kee land Till face to face we meet a - gain. _____

CHORUS

Let all the na - tion a - rise and sing Si - mul - ta - neous - ly and free, The stars and stripes for - ev - er float A vic -
